

My Young Days

[...] POOR DEAD PUSSY! POOR DEAD PUSSY! Oh, the poor little rabbit! I cried. Has Uncle Hugh killed him quite dead? Yes, yes, he quite dead! De Capitaines gun kill him quite, de small dog pick him up. Petite mademoiselle not frighten, he quite dead! Ah, that was just the reason of my fright! Away I ran to Jane, and hid my face in her gown; and a very vigorous scolding did she give the French boy when she found what he had done.[...].
