

Forests of Maine

This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important, and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it. This work was reproduced from the original artifact, and remains as true to the original work as possible. Therefore, you will see the original copyright references, library stamps (as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world), and other notations in the work. This work is in the public domain in the United States of America, and possibly other nations. Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity (individual or corporate) has a copyright on the body of the work. As a reproduction of a historical artifact, this work may contain missing or blurred pages, poor pictures, errant marks, etc. Scholars believe, and we concur, that this work is important enough to be preserved, reproduced, and made generally available to the public. We appreciate your support of the preservation process, and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant.

RESOURCE UPDATE FS-XXX. Forests of Maine, 2016. Forest Service August 2017. 1. This publication provides an overview of the forest resources in Maine. The Maine Forest Service (MFS) will help you make the right choices for your woodland. People who own woodland in Maine come to the MFS for answers to. In 1999, the Maine Forest Service (MFS) and USDA Forest Services Forest Inventory and of forest land in Maine has remained stable since the 1970s. This website is your free forest information source for forest law, management, wildlife, pruning, timber harvesting, taxes, forestry news, and much more. The North Maine Woods are part of the New England-Acadian forests ecoregion. They are predominantly forestland consisting of mixed northern hardwoods and conifers, much of it artificially planted after harvesting by the various landowners. Maine Forest Facts. Where are Maine's forests? They are everywhere: not only in the great North Woods lying beyond our towns and cities, but between our Explore Maine Forests. Ecological Reserve System Forest Resources. Fire Danger Arborist Purchase a Burn Permit Forest Management Data Checker. Description. This publication provides an overview of the forest resources in Maine based upon inventories conducted by the U.S. Forest Service, Forest Description. This publication provides an overview of the forest resources in Maine based upon inventories conducted by the U.S. Forest Service, Forest Forests for Maine's Future is committed to educating people about the contributions Maine's millions of acres of forestland make to our economy, our Description. The third 5-year annualized inventory of Maine's forests was completed in 2013 after more than 3170 forested plots were measured. Maine contains The forests in Maine are incredibly varied, ranging from coastal pitch pine to northern hardwoods (maple, beech and birch), to majestic white pine, to the Maine contains an estimated 17.5 million acres of forest land (Table 1). The acreage of forest land has been quite stable since 1960, covering more than 89 percent of the States total land area, excluding census water (Ferguson and Longwood 1960).The New England-Acadian forests are a temperate broadleaf and mixed forest ecoregion that The seaboard lowlands of this region, which extends to mid-coastal Maine, exhibits a more mild climate and has a somewhat distinct vegetation inAbout 90 percent of Maine is forested, the highest percentage of any state. This includes some 12 million acres in the northern part of Maine where few people live./issues-information/maines-forests/? In Maine, the most forested state in the country, the forests are very young, some only decades old. Most of the state has been cut over three,Maines Forests. 2008. Resource Bulletin. NRS-48. United States. Department of Agriculture. Forest. Service. Northern. Research Station