

The Return of Dr. Fu-Manchu

When did you last hear from Nayland Smith? asked my visitor. I paused, my hand on the syphon, reflecting for a moment. Two months ago, I said; hes a poor correspondent and rather soured, I fancy. Whata woman or something? Some affair of that sort. Hes such a reticent beggar, I really know very little about it. I placed a whisky and soda before the Rev. J. D. Eltham, also sliding the tobacco jar nearer to his hand. The refined and sensitive face of the clergy-man offered no indication of the truculent character of the man. His scanty fair hair, already gray over the temples, was silken and soft-looking; in appearance he was indeed a typical English churchman; but in China he had been known as the fighting missionary, and had fully deserved the title. In fact, this peaceful-looking gentleman had directly brought about the Boxer Risings!
